KRZYSZTOF BANASZEK
President of Polish Air Navigation Services Agency (PANSA)

Graduate of the Faculty of Transport of Warsaw University of Technology specialized in air traffic organization and control / traffic management in transport. Finished post-graduate courses in management and organization domain, financial management in an air transport industry.

In the years 1992-1993 worked for the General Inspectorate of Civil Aviation. In the years 1993-2006 worked for Polish Air Traffic Agency/Polish Air Navigation Services Agency managing the technical (CNS/ATM) and development department and the CNS/ATM services department.
November, 2007 - February, 2008 – the Vice-President for Air Navigation Services (PANSA/PAŻP).
February, 2008 - August, 2008 - held the position of Acting President of PANSA.
On 26 August, 2008 – appointed by The Prime Minister of Poland the President of PANSA following the open competition procedure.

Mr. Krzysztof Banaszek actively participated in the activities of several state and international organizations and groups involved in, inter alia, air communications and navigation issues e.g. EUROCONTROL Communication Team, ICAO (AFSG) and the Inter-Ministerial Team for Airspace Exploitation. He is member of the EU GNSS Committee – European GNSS Program Committee (EGPC) and the author of R&D programs and publications on satellite navigation systems. Mr. Banaszek is also co-author of the Governmental Program for Airports and Aviation Ground Support Equipment Development.