

Curriculum Vitae

PRISSINOTTI Iacopo

CURRENT POSITION

Name of company

ENAV

Job position

Head of International Strategies

PROFESSIONAL BACKGROUND

Born on 4th January 1964.

Iacopo Prissinotti started his career in the Italian Air Force as ATCO and joined ENAV in 1985.

He worked as operational ATCO till 2000.

From 2004 to 2006, he was responsible for Strategy and scenarios, office expected to design and develop ENAV core business promotion strategies.

In 2006, he was appointed Head of the ENAV International Activities Office, in staff to the Director General, with responsibilities in the coordination of all ENAV international projects, cooperation initiatives and the participation to European and International Bodies and Organisations.

From 2012 Head of ENAV International Strategies, reporting to the CEO, with responsibilities on all the international initiatives, also as Board member of important international programmes (SESAR Joint Undertaking, Aireon).

EDUCATION AND TRAININGS:

2013 Course in "Driving corporate performance: aligning scorecards, systems and strategy"
HARVARD SCHOOL OF ECONOMICS – Boston

2006 Course in negotiation skills
Centro Studi Nazionali CISL - Fiesole (FI, Italy)

EXTRAS:

Additional information (for example publications) related to the position