

Curriculum Vitae

Gerhard TAUSS

CURRENT POSITION

Name of company

DFS Deutsche Flugsicherung GmbH
OP Planning and Innovation

Job position

SESAR Programme Manager

PROFESSIONAL BACKGROUND

Since 2006, Gerhard Tauss is working at the DFS Headquarters in the Planning and Innovation division. He is the Alternate Member of the DFS contribution management and coordination for the SESAR Programme.

Beforehand, he worked at DFS Headquarters:

- (2004—2005) in the Engineering, Planning and Co-ordination department as Head of SESAME Preparation Team of DFS during which time he took care of the preparation of the DFS contribution to the SESAME Definition Phase (mandate of the DFS Board of Directors.) He was the Chairman of the SESAME ANSP Core Group;
- (2003-2004) in the Business Unit Control Centre as Head of Project Data Link Centre and prepared and co-ordinated DFS activities for the implementation of LINK 2000+ CPDLC functionality. He was the representative of DFS in EUROCONTROL LINK 2000+ Integration Team;
- (1999—2003) in the Research and Development department as Head of the Simulation Systems, NEWSIM, where he implemented new generation training simulators for DFS Control Centres and Air Navigation Services Academy in Langen;
- (1998—1999) he worked as Assistant in the Research & Development Affairs of the Managing Director Operational Systems and assisted the Managing Director, Peter Waldinger, Chairman of the EUROCONTROL ATM R&D Programme Review Group and Member of the EUROCONTROL ATM R&D Strategy Drafting Group and Information Support Network (ISN);
- (1994—1998) in the System Programmes as Head of Office PI ATM System; and
- (1988—1994) for the Deutsche Lufthansa AGs Division Informatics, Application Software Development as Head Operational Cargo Systems.

EDUCATION AND TRAININGS:

Gerhard Tauss holds a Diploma of Physicist from the University of Mainz, Institute of Nuclear Physics

EXTRAS:
